| | | experiences and creates portraits to accompany those words, all on simple lined paper with pen - "time documents". All of you have created a portrait in one art class or another. In quarantine, you have spent a lot of time with the people in your homes - interview them. Or connect virtually (FaceTime, email, phone calls) with your friends, family, teachers and talk with them. Write down their experiences, your experiences - the words you record don't have to be anything spectacular - something as simple as "I have always wanted to bake a lemon meringue pie and because of quarantine, I finally had the time to do it. It was delicious!". Create your own series of "time documents". |
